

REPORT OF SPORTS AND CULTURAL ACTIVITIES

The institute organizes garba, cultural and sports activities for the students every year.

EUCRASIA – The sports event is celebrated for around a week. These events are organized by the students in co-ordination with the cultural and sports committee of the institute. Celebrations are planned and the weeks are scheduled for the cultural and sports activities. Various games like cricket, table tennis, chess, badminton, treasure hunt, antakshari and 1 minute games are played all over the college with venue being the college campus. The games are played with great vigor and enthusiasm and the spirit of sportsmanship is appreciated. Students fill their names according to their choices and incharge of the events are selected accordingly. All the events are passed through the quarterfinal and semifinal to the finals. List of winners are prepared and awarded.

The cultural fest is celebrated on one day, usually following a week after Eucrasia. The venue of the event is auditorium hall which is usually rented by the college. The college organizes lunch for everyone followed by celebration at the venue. The event starts with lamp lighting and introduction of judges, followed by performances planned by students and staff. Various competitive performances like songs, dance, drama and fashion show are performed by students which are split in groups according to their year. Filler performances between the main rounds like songs and dance are also added. Winners are selected based on the performances for every category and awards are distributed for the same by the judges. The event is celebrated with great liveliness and it is a special event that the students look forward to for the whole year.

Garba night is celebrated in the month of Navratri every year. The venue of the event is college lawn. Students, staff and their family members are cordially invited for the celebration. This event starts with Ambamata aarti which is followed by Prasad. Later, tunes of traditional garba songs are played to which the invitees groove and dance with full energy and devotion. Dinner is
